CASPA has arranged a series of career and financial development events to help individuals to adjust to the industry trend and, to cope with financial needs.

Distinguished Speakers and Presentation Topics:

Matt Cherian, VP, HSBC
"Global Banking in the 21 Century"

With easing of international instructions, the global flow of capital has become that much easier. Nowadays, to be able to send money from one country to another has made global banking an actuality for many businesses and professionals"

George L Clarke, Sr. Technical Recruiter at Technology Resource Network
"How to get a job in the Bay Area?"

How do you find a job in today's harsh job market, with unemployment in California at 10% or more?

An insider's look at how the process of recruiting works will be presented. How boutique agencies find new contracts and what companies are working through recruiting agencies and why. Also covered in the seminar will be how we choose suitable candidates to present to companies and where we go from there. There are new job opportunities in the Bay Area right now, so know where to apply and how to maximize your chances of getting the job you deserve.
